

Elevate your leadership

Join our community of successful Key Executives

Within any organisation, senior executives and business leaders like you, face a wealth of challenges on a daily basis. From day to day management issues to team communication silos to strategic alignment. But when senior management needs perspective and guidance, where do they go?

The Executive Connection (TEC) is a dedicated community for senior executives to come together and share their collective wisdom and create an opportunity for life-long learning.

TEC's proven peer advisory process supports business leaders across a variety of industries, to elevate their leadership. Helping them to address real concerns and solve problems in real-time. Members gain a new perspective and a trusted assurance from a circle of like-minded high-performance executives.

Grow Business. Companies who joined TEC over the past five years have outperformed their competition and grown their business significantly.

Solve Problems. With TEC's proven leadership development programs, leaders approach complex issues and uncertainty with more confidence.

Lifelong Learning. The race for excellence has no finish line. Our exclusive learning platform, and best practice toolkits keeps executives at the forefront of their industry.

'The questions other executives ask are so insightful, that they help you with issues that may not even be front of mind!'

Tim Davis, Director at Davis Partners Australia

Our proven program of peer advisory groups, executive coaching, and fast-paced learning provides lasting impact. A membership to The Executive Connection gives you access to join a trusted circle of leaders who will help you succeed.

- Executive Peer Advisory

12-full day meetings a year

- Confidential peer advisory board
- Executives from non-competing industries
- Led by highly trained Chairs

- One-to-One Coaching

(Optional for additional fee)

- Personalised mentoring
- Navigate real challenges
- Discover new opportunities

- World Class Resources

- Fast-paced life long learning
- High calibre leader to leader network
- Industry thought leaders